

Meredith Canniff

Associate

Ms. Canniff focuses her practice on real estate transactions and trusts and estates matters. She frequently handles real estate transactions involving co-ops and condominiums. Additionally, Ms. Canniff assists clients with probate and administration proceedings, as well as estate tax matters.

Upon graduation, Ms. Canniff practiced as a defense litigation attorney and handled the defense of both general liability and environmental matters. During law school, Ms. Canniff attended the Temple Law Program in Tokyo, Japan for a semester, and also participated in the Jessup International Moot Court Competition. She has also served as a judge for this competition for the past six years.

Education

J.D., Albany Law School, 2004

B.A., Magna cum laude, Susquehanna University, 2001

Bar Admissions

New York, 2005

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association, Real Property Law Section
Adjunct Assistant Professor, Business Law, LaGuardia Community College
Carnegie Council, New Leaders Program
Board Liaison, Off-the-Record Lecture Series

Other Interests

Ms. Canniff is an avid runner and also volunteers her time to the Loomba Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to assisting disadvantaged widows worldwide.