

Michelle J. Martin
Associate

Ms. Martin's practice centers on complex cross-border commercial disputes and international judgment and arbitral award enforcement. She handles matters involving sovereign and commercial entities in federal and state trial and appellate courts, United States bankruptcy courts, and in arbitration. She represents both plaintiffs and defendants in cross-border cases. As a student in France, Ms. Martin was University Paris XI's team leader in the Paris International Arbitration Competition at Sciences Po Law School.
